

CHURCH OF THE NAZARENE FOUNDATION

DONOR-ADVISED FUND DISTRIBUTION RECOMMENDATION

I/We, the Donor Advisor(s) of the _____ (Fund Name), recommend approval of the following distribution(s) by the Foundation. The advisor(s) confirm that they will receive no tangible benefit, goods, or services from these organizations and that these distributions will not be used to satisfy any legally binding pledge or any other personal financial obligation that the advisor(s) have made to these organizations.

All recommendations must be to U.S. domestic organizations recognized as "public charities" by the IRS, as defined in I.R. C. Sec. 501 (c) (3) and shall not promote any mission in opposition to the core values of the Church of the Nazarene. You may not fulfill legally binding personal pledges of financial support with your donor-advised fund. The IRS considers a legally binding pledge to be a personal debt and payment of this debt by a foundation fund to be a personal benefit to the donor. Neither the Church of the Nazarene Foundation nor any other charity or foundation may fulfill a personal debt or obligation. If you have made a charitable pledge and are unsure if it is a legally binding pledge, or you have questions about how to structure a complex grant with a nonprofit organization, please contact our office.
