a. I understand that the gift I am making is unconditional and irrevocable, and cannot be returned to me.

b. I understand my gift will be received by Church of the Nazarene Foundation ("Foundation"), a tax-exempt Foundation under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code. I will receive a tax receipt from the Foundation, not from any grantee who may receive a distribution from the fund established by my contribution.

c. I understand that the Foundation exercises complete control and ownership of all gifts it receives and the grants it makes, and that the Foundation will perform an in-depth review of any grantee I recommend to ensure that the grantee is a qualifying charitable Foundation, and that a grant will meet the objectives of the Foundation. The review of any of my recommendations may include a review of the Internal Revenue Service letter of determination of the grantee's tax exempt status, its annual reports and any other applicable documents. If, for any reason, the Foundation determines that my recommended grantee is not a qualified grant recipient, the Foundation will make reasonable attempts to contact me to allow me to recommend an alternate grantee.

d. I understand that certain administrative costs and fees will reduce the amount of gifts which are made from the fund established with my contribution.

e. I understand that any contribution I make to the Foundation to establish a Donor(s) advised fund may not satisfy any legally binding pledge to the Foundation. Further, I may not make recommendations regarding grantees that will satisfy any legally binding pledges I have made to the grantee.

f. I understand I may not receive any tangible benefit, goods or services from the Foundation in exchange for making a contribution to the Foundation to establish a Donor(s) advised fund, or from a grantee whom I recommend to the Foundation in connection with the fund.

g. I understand that I should consult my tax advisor for information about the tax consequences of my gift.

h. This Agreement shall be interpreted and construed according to, and governed by the laws of the state in which the Foundation maintains its principal place of business.
